Aligned to: DSIT AI Regulation Principles, CDDO AI Playbook and AI Safety Institute Standards

This statement confirms how askKira aligns to the UK Government's AI standards and regulatory guidance.

DSIT AI Regulation Principles

Principle	askKira Alignment
Safety, security and robustness	Regular security testing, AI incident register, robust sub-processor controls, documented incident response.
Transparency and explainability	All AI outputs include explanatory context. Users are always informed when AI is involved.
Fairness	Bias assessment in AI review cycle. Annual equality impact assessment. Named accountability.
Accountability and governance	Board-level AI governance, named DPO, documented framework, regular internal audit.
Contestability and redress	All outputs can be challenged. Human review available. Clear complaints and escalation process.

CDDO AI Playbook Alignment

askKira's internal governance aligns to the CDDO AI Playbook including algorithmic transparency, human-in-the-loop design, proportionate risk assessment and supplier due diligence.
